CAPITOL HILL METHODIST CHURCH
5th & Pennsylvania Ave. S. E. at Seward Square
Washington, D. C. 20003

The beautiful new structure of Capitol Hill Methodist Church stands five blocks from the nation's Capitol, making it one of the most strategically located churches in the United States. It is a united church of four former Methodist Churches on Capitol Hill, dating back to 1802, "The First Methodist Society of Washington, D. C." It is believed to be the first uniting project of four city churches at one time in Protestant History in the United States.
